1. EXEMPT CLASSIFICATION: Certain projects may be classified as Exempt from IRB review by a qualified IRB Administrator.

- a. Investigators must submit the IRB Application for Human Participant Research form and all supporting materials to the IRB in order for a project to be classified as Exempt.
- b. The IRB Administrator or member of the IRB may require revisions to the project before a Notice of Exemption is issued.
- c. Certain changes may alter the Exempt status of an ongoing project. Therefore, any proposed changes to an ongoing Exempt project must be submitted to the IRB for review and approval prior to implementation.
- d. Continuing

A. Familiarize themselves with these guidelines and to discuss with members of the IRB any questions regarding proposed research activities.

- B. Submit a completed IRB Application for Human ParticipanResearchform and the necessary supporting documents for review by the IRB.
- C. Notify the IRB of any injury physical, psychological, or social that is suffered by participants because of their participation in a research activity.
- D. Request a continuing review if the research is judged by the IRB to involve more than minimal risk or extends beyond an assigned expiration date.
- E. Make provisions to keep records, documents, and informed consent forms normally for at least three years following the completion of the project or activity, or for a longer period as judged necessary.
- F. Take proper measures to insure confidentiality and security of all information obtained from the participants. Include a written explanation of these measures with the application to the IRB for review.
- VII. ADVERSE EVENTS AND UNANTICIPATED PROBLEMS: Any adverse event or unanticipated problem must be reported immediately to the JCU IRB Chairperson. Adverse events and unanticipated problems can include injury to participants, investigators, and research assistants; breaches of confidentiality; stolen or lost data; etc. The IRB Chairperson, at his/her discretion, will report any problem to the Institutional Official (i.e., JCU Provost/Academic Vice President) or any other Dean, Chairperson, unanticet
